Do You Want to Know What You Swallow?

There is a growing sentiment in this country in favor of MEDICINES OF KNOWN COMPOSITION. It is but natural that one should have some interest in the composition of that which he or she is expected to swallow, whether it be food, drink or medicine.

Recognizing this growing disposition on the part of the public, and satisfied that the fullest publicity can only add to the well-earned reputation of his medicines, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., has "taken time by the forelock," as it were, and is publishing broadcast a list of all the ingredients entering into his leading medicines, the "Golden Medical Discovery" the popular liver invigorator, stomach tonic, blood purifier and heart regulator; also of his "Favorite Prescription" for weak, over-worked, broken-down, nervous and invalid women.

This bold and out-spoken movement on the part of Dr. Pierce, has, by showing exactly what his well-known medicines are composed of, completely disarmed all harping critics who have heretofore unjustly attacked them. A little pamphlet has been compiled, from the standard medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, showing the strongest endorsements by leading medical writers of the several ingredients which enter into Dr. Pierce's medicines. A copy of this little book is mailed free to any one desiring to learn more concerning the valuable, native, medicinal plants which enter into the composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are tiny, sugar-coated anti-bilious granules. They regulate and invigorate Stomach, Liver and Bowels. Do not beget the "pill habit," but cure constipation. One or two each day for a laxative and regulator, three or four for an active cathartic. Once tried always in favor.

$50,000 GIVEN AWAY, in copies of The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book that sold to the extent of 500,000 copies a few years ago, at $1.50 per copy. Last year we gave away $30,000 worth of these invaluable books. This year we shall give away $50,000 worth of them. Will you share in this benefit? If so, send only 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only for book in stiff paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

UNHAPPINESS DISPELLED.

Men and Women Unanimous About It.

Many women weep and wail and refuse to be comforted because their once magnificent tresses have become thin and faded. Many men incline to profanity because the flies bite through the thin thatch on their craniums. It will be good news to the miserable of both sexes, to learn that Newbro's Herpicide has been placed upon the market. This is the new scalp germicide and antiseptic that acts by destroying the germ or microbe that is the underlying cause of all hair destruction. Herpicide is a new preparation, made after a new formula on an entirely new principle. Anyone who has tried it will testify as to its worth. Try it yourself and be convinced. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Southern Baptist Convention.

The Southern Baptist Convention met in Chattanooga, Tenn., yesterday for its fifty-fourth annual session. About 5,000 delegates and visitors are present. The convention was called to order by the president, Dr. W. Stephens, of Columbia, Mo.

The tone of President Stephen's annual address was highly gratifying. He declared that the past year had been the greatest in the history of the Baptist Church and that the prospects of the denomination were never so bright.

The convention, he said, comprised Baptists from 14 southern States, covering an are of a million square miles, with a population over 30,000,000, of whom 2,000,000 are Baptists. When the convention was organized, in 1845, the population was 8,000,000 and denomination was 250,000.

The contributions to foreign missions during the 61 years have been over $4,250,000, and to home missions over $3,250,000. There are now 187 missionaries in the employ of the foreign board, over 700 in the employ of the home board and about 2,000 engaged in the State, district and city mission work.

There are in the South, the president said, 103 institutions under the control of white Baptists. Of them 52 are universities and colleges and 51 academies and institutions. Twenty-nine are endowed in the total sum of $3,036,018. The total value of buildings and grounds and equipment is $6,660,448. Over 1,000 teachers and about 20,000 students attend these institutions.

Rev. Dr. Willingham read the report of the Board of Foreign Missions.

The report stated that the churches have contributed more than ever before, the aggregate of the gifts being $315,248, against $283,415 last year and $247,629 the year before. A few years ago only a very limited number of our churches gave per annum the salary of a missionary ($500 or $600). Now it is common for churches to give that much, and a number of them contribute $1,000 or $1,200—the salary of a man and his wife.

Railroad Accidents.

On Concord Hill, a steep grade, six miles east of Lynchburg, on the Norfolk and Western Railway, at 4 o'clock yesterday morning during a dense fog the second section of eastbound freight train No. 92 ran into the first section, which was being assisted over the grade by two pusher engines. Two of the engines were derailed, one being thrown 50 feet down an embankment, and four cars of coal and one of lumber telescoped and crushed into kindling. Two engineers and two firemen were killed, and four others of the train crew injured. The accident occurred on the worst grade on the Norfolk and Western east of the Blue Ridge, where a block telegraph station, it is said, has not been located because of the steep hill. The trains follow each other in plain view for several miles, but in this instance the train in front could not be seen on account of the fog.

A disastrous wreck on the Norfolk and Western Cannon Ball express was averted at Berkley Junction, near Norfolk, yesterday, only by the ditching of an engine and three freight cars on the Norfolk and Southern Railroad. Seeing the rapid approach of the Cannon Ball on the track occupied by his engine and train, the Norfolk and Southern engineer dashed into a switch just at the moment the fast train sped by. The Norfolk and Southern engine and three cars went into the ditch and were wrecked. A moment later and the Cannon Ball, with its hundred or more passengers, would have been a mass of ruins. The crew of the wrecked engine jumped and saved themselves. Confusion in signals was responsible for the accident.

Strike at a Funeral.

The abandonment of a body while the funeral was actually in progress marked a climax in the strike of the funeral drivers' union in New York yesterday. A requiem mass was being said at the Church of the Guardian Angels over the body of Charles McInhargy, who died Thursday. Outside the church waited the hearse and six carriages.

In the midst of the mass a man, said to be a delegate for the striking union, came up on a run and whispered to each driver. Immediately all of them drove away. When the pallbearers emerged from the church bearing the casket, with the family and friends following behind, there was no sign of hearse or carriages. After an hour's delay Undertaker Slevin sent a wagon to the church, and in it the body was carried to Calvary. The relatives had to make the trip to the cemetery in street cars.

With at least 150 bodies awaiting burial—burial in some instances being immediately imperative—the strike for higher wages and better conditions assumed a serious and sinister aspect from the start. The men quit work yesterday morning, tying up most of the undertaking establishments and funeral coach stables. Determined not to surrender, the bosses at once appealed to the police for protection in the few cases in which they attempted to bury bodies, and the board of health for action by the city in instances where the dead awaiting interment had been victims of infectious diseases, or where the four-day limit during which a body may be kept in a private house was about to expire.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 12, 1906.

THE friends of Senator Gorman throughout the south will be glad to learn that the recent reports of his illness were exaggerated and that the Senator's health, which has been considerably broken down by reason of the great strain upon him is gradually being restored. The Senator has been sadly missed from his seat during the past few months and his complete restoration to health and his early return to the Senate are the hopes of his hosts of friends. The Lynchburg News voices the estimate in which Senator Gorman is held in the south when it says:

Mr. Gorman has long been conspicuous in the public service of his country, having filled the sphere alloted to him ably and with distinguished honor. For more than two decades. he has been regarded as a commanding force on the floor of the United States Senate—soundly versed in the lore of statecraft, and an able and resourceful party chief and leader. Though a partisan, Mr. Gorman has been none the less a patriot—and at all times a conservative factor in the deliberations of the Senate and the councils of his party. As a parliamentary figher, he has had few equals. The splendid strategic ability together with the indomitable courage and tenacity with which he gave battle to the federal force bill, introduced in Congress during Harrison's administration—and defeated it, accomplished an end that will always be remembered to his credit, and nowhere more so than in the South, whose people it was intended to oppress. All conditions were unfavorable to his side of the contention. The bill was pending in a Congress heavily republican in both branches and had passed the House and a republican President was in the White House anxiously waiting to approve it. But he was never given opportunity to do so. Gorman was largely instrumental in putting this republican device to sleep, and he did so in a republican Senate. The debt of gratitude that he thus earned from the South can not be paid save through the admiring and affectionate regard of the Southern people—but in that way it has long since met its full discharge.

HORSES are surviving automobiles as they survived railroads. When railroads were introduced horse breeders were as sure that they were ruined as British ship owners were when the navigation laws were repealed. But the British ship owner was never so prosperous as after the removal of mediæval legislation, and horses became more numerous and valuable after stage coaches were abolished than they were before. The automobile and the electric car threw the horse breeders into alpanic. But the Department of Agriculture reports that there are now 18,718,578 horses in the United States, against 14,364,667 nine years ago. In the same time mules have increased from 2,215,654 to 3,404,061, and the value per head of both beasts is estimated much higher now than nine years ago.

THE surrender of President Roosevelt to the Aldrich faction of the Senate in the rate bill fight earned the chief executive the denunciation of Senators Bailey and Rayner yesterday. At the same time those republican senators who have heretofore stood out for a thoroughly effective rate bill, but who now are solidly with the Aldrich faction for party expediency, also came in for the hottest kind of criticism and for ridicule that made them squirm. The republicans, however, have succeeded in huddling themselves practically all together under the Aldrich banner, and when Senator Bailey's limited court review provision—the one for which the President was shouting for several weeks—came to a vote it was defeated, 23 to 46.

THE PENSION laws are so liberal that any man having a shadow of a claim for services rendered his country can now secure a pension, but this does not suffice, for weekly special pension bills for men entirely underserving of such consideration are rushed through Congress at a rate that is appalling to all but the members thereof. Yesterday the House made a record by passing 320 such bills in an hour and a half. Still, in private, the average congressman will acknowledge that these special pension grants are little short of robberies of the public treasury.

AS HAD been anticipated, the Sultan of Turkey has yielded to England's demands twenty-four hours before the latter's ultimatum would have expired; hence the war cloud which recently settled over the Orient is passing away. The Turk is prone at times to test the patience of the great powers of the world, but he seems to know how far to go.

WHEN the officials of this administration cannot manage the Panama canal, which the government owns, without scandalous inefficiency, what is to be reasonably expected of government control of 200,000 miles of railroads?

The strike at Rome has collapsed. At Naples all the strikers returned to work this morning.

Sir Philip Henry Wodehouse, the first Lord Hamrie, died in London this morning.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, May 12

Under direction of the War Department, General Leonard Wood, commanding the division of the Philippines, has begun a campaign of preparation of his troops for possible service in China. An order issued by him providing for an elaborate system of target practice, field marches, sham battles, etc, all for the purpose, as he states, "that the troops in this command may be fit for hard field service," was made public today.

The advocates of the sea level canal at Panama will probably win. They came near scoring a victory this morning in the Senate canal committee. As it is the determination of the question as to the type of the canal has been postponed until next Wednesday. Then the question came up for consideration in executive session of the committee today the vote resulted in a tie. Senator Kittredge produced a telegram from Senator Carmack asking that his vote be counted for the sea level plan. But in view of the fact that Carmack has been absent during all of the hearing with one exception the lock advocates contested his right to vote. The adjournment was taken for the purpose of investigating precedents in such cases. Carmack is expected here before Wednesday and will therefore be present to vote. The other absentee, Senator Gorman, favors the sea level and Carmack's vote will decide the question so far as the committee is concerned in favor of that project.

So many have been the amendments offered and so earnest and prolonged has been the debate that the railroad rate bill still occupies the exclusive attention of the Senate. It now looks as though the final vote on the passage of the bill will not be reached until next Tuesday or Wednesday. Up to the present the Senate has been considering the bill in committee of the whole. After the entire measure has been gone through with in this way, the bill will be reported to the Senate proper. When it reaches this parliamentary stage any of the amendments that have been adopted in the committee of the whole may be considered, and again voted upon. It is already certain that many of them will be subjected to this process, thus delaying the final verdict. In order to hasten the vote the Senate for the first time this year will sit in executive session on a Saturday, today, and it is expected that the Allison compromise court review amendment will be adopted. It is over the features of the bill that the greatest fight has been waged, and there will be more democratic charges made to the effect that the President has surrendered to the railroads in accepting the compromise. The republicans are however, united upon it, with the exception of Senator LaFollette, and yesterday voted down one after another, all changes proposed by democrats. The bill will be a republican measure when it is completed and the conservative element headed by Aldrich, Foraker, Crane, etc., are in control, although they have had to accept some rather radical amendments to their original programme.

Advices received by the State Department from Santo Domingo indicate that a revolution is brewing in the republic of possibly greater magnitude than has disturbed political conditions there since the American receivership of customs was inaugurated. While vague as to details, the department's information indicates that the remnants of the Jiminista party, whose leaders are now exiled in Porto Rico, are preparing an invasion of Santo Domingo, in order to wrest the supremacy from the Hpracista party, now controlling the Dominican government and headed by President Caceres.

Senator Dolliver, who called to talk with the President this morning about rate legislation matters, expressed the belief that the Senate would conclude its labors on the measure before night.

Man 84, Shoots Wife, 77, and Kills Himself.

Close upon the end of a very long life's journey, with his grave, as it were, in sight, J. L. Yarnall, of Ardmore, Pa., yesterday shot his wife and then killed himself. He was 84 years old and she is 77. The doctors think it hardly possible that she can recover.

There had been no quarrel. All their neighbors say they were "a sweet old pair," and as devoted to each other as a man and wife could be. So far as anybody can ascertain, the old man merely wanted to plunge, instead of walk, over the brink, and he wanted his wife to go with him—wanted her so much that he was willing to face his Maker a murderer, as well as a suicide.

Yet there are excuses, too. A man of 84 is liable to mental weakness, especially if he has suffered for years with paralysis, as Mr. Yarnall had. Although he could still walk, he could not dress himself, and his wife, who looked scarcely more than 60 cared for him as though he were a baby.

And he was a baby—a second childhood baby.— [Philadelphia North American.

Revived by Oxygen.

After being pronounced dead, Richard Phillips was apparently restored to life yesterday in the Cooper hospital, Camden, N. J. The man began choking at his home, 768 Pennsylvania avenue, and was taken to the hospital in the police patrol. and on his arrival the physicians said he was dead.

When Dr. E. A. Schellenger arrived he decided to apply the oxygen treatment. Making two incisions in the man's throat and inserting silver tubes, he directed that artificial respiration be resorted to, Oxygen was pumped into him, and after an hour's hard work signs of life were detected.

The case is attracting great interest among the medical fraternity and was placed on the hospital records. The physicians say that to all intents Phillips was dead. He had been suffering with a severe case of inflammation of the larynx. An operation will have to be performed before the tubes are withdrawn.—[Philadelphia Record.

M. C. Wetmore, of St. Louis, a personal friend of W. J. Bryan, has received from Mr. Bryan, who is in Egypt, a letter, in which he says: "I am satisfied that the things I have been fighting for are growing, but who will be most available in 1908 is a question that cannot be answered now. I shall not do anthing to secure another nomination and do not want it unless circumstances seem to demand it. Time alone can determine that."

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, May 12.

SENATE

The Senate lost no time in getting down to business on the amendments on the railway rate bill when it met an hour before noon today.

Four Senators heard the opening prayer, but within fifteen minutes there was a quorum present. The pending question was on the adoption of another of the Allison compromise amendments, fixing the venue and giving the courts jurisdiction.

Mr. Rayner offered as an amendment a proviso that jurisdiction should not attach unless the order of the commission complained of was beyond the authority of the commission or in violation of the constitutional rights of the carrier.

These propositions consumed most of the fifteen minutes allotted Mr. Rayner.

He was explaining that part of the time that he had been on the floor was spent in answering questions, within the time of Mr. Culberson, when he became nettled at the sotto voce denials of Mr. Aldrich. Turning toward that Senator he exclaimed: "The Senator from Rhode Island for months worked for delay on this bill but upon this pivotal point he is extremely anxious to have it rushed through. I want him to understand that action will not be taken until I've had full time to discuss the question."

He then sat down.

Mr Carter (Mont.) defended the President from the charges of cowardice. He characterized Mr. Rayner as the critic from Maryland, and after pointing out his long career, as a member of the House, "while Theodore Roosevelt was riding the range," declared that the only legislation in the line of stopping railroad abuses, for which he was responsible, related to mileage tickets.

"And what has the superb intellect of the Senator from Texas done?" he asked, "in his superb devotion to the people."

He declared that during his ten years in the House of Representatives, part of the time being leader of the minority, Mr. Bailey had introduced by request a bill prohibiting scalpers from selling tickets. (Laughter.) He said he thought the two Senators had to examine their own records before they criticise such a courageous man as the President, to whom he paid great tribute.

In replying Mr. Bailey characterized Mr. Carter's remarks as an ebullition which arose from the fear that the rate debate might conclude without the people learning that the Senator from Montana had had a part in the rate compromise, "inconspicious though it was."

He explained that inasmuch as his term as Congressman had been largely when his party was in the minority, any attempt by him at railroad legislation would have been as much buncombe as that uttered by the Senator from Montana a moment ago. Mr. Bailey criticized the President as having played for favor before his nomination, and suggested that the reason he had not done as he promised was because the great insurance companies held railway bonds and stocks and had used their influence with the President's managers, because of their great contributions of the money of the widows and orphans.

He charged that the President gave up his political fights with great alacrity. "Let's cease these references to the 'man of iron,'" he exclaimed. "He's only clay and common clay at that."

The Rayner limited court review amendment was disagreed to without a roll call.

Mr. Bacon offered an amendment depriving the courts of jurisdiction over questions involving the discretion of the commission.

The Bacon amendment was rejected upon a strict party vote of 46 to 22, except Mr. Lafollette, who voted with the democrats for it.

An amendment offered by Mr. Lafollette prohibiting federal judges who own railroad stocks or bonds from sitting in cases arising under this act, and forbidding them from accepting favors from the railroads called forth a rebuke from Senator Hale. It was defeated 40 to 27.

Mr. Tillman read a chronological record of his consultations with the President through ex-Senator Chandler. He said the President had declared his unalterable opposition to the broad court review plan, and specified Spooner, Knox and Foraker as constitutional lawyers whose advice he did not want followed.

The estimated cost of the cut-off is $8,000,000. It is known in a semi-official way that the company will build its own station in the vicinity of Fifth and Filmore streets, which will be fully a mile and a half from the present station.

Russian Douma.

St. Petersburg, May 12.—The correspondent of the Publishers Press learns that at the interview yesterday between Professor Mouromtseff, the President of the lower house of parliament, the Czar for half an hour discussed the proposed reforms which will come before the Douma. He expressed himself as being convinced of the necessity of many immediate reforms and said that he hoped that the Douma would be reasonable in its discussions of all questions and not too rapidly. The Czar also agreed that amnesty to political prisoners should be granted. President Mouromtseff is highly pleased with the Czar's attitude, and says that everything augurs well for the future of the Russian empire.

The new Douma, which was opened on Thursday, resumed its sittings today. At the opening of the session, President Mouromtseff read to the deputies numerous telegrams of cordial greeting.

The Douma elected as vice presidents, Prince Peter Dolgorukoff and Professor Gradescul. The former lives at Moscow, while the latter's home is at Kharkoff. Prof. Gradescul was elected a member of the Douma despite the fact that he had been arrested and was exiled at Archangel. After his election he returned to Kharkoff and today he was honored by the deputies in being selected as one of the vice presidents of the assembly.

Prince Dimitri Shasoucky was elected secretary of the Douma.

Strike of Funeral Drivers.

New York, May 12.—A serious situation confronts the health department because of the strike of the funeral drivers. Two hundred funerals are scheduled for today, and a like number tomorrow, while one hundred and fifty funerals were postponed from yesterday. The strikers by violence and other methods have so far succeeded in holding up a large majority of funerals, and the health department has determined to ask the aid of the police in preventing the molestation of funerals. At a funeral in the Bronx yesterday the coffin was placed in a milk wagon, while the mourners followed to the cemetery in grocery wagons. One undertaker has engaged today a sight-seeing automobile for the mourners at a funeral. The body will be carried in a business wagon. The funeral drivers demand $14 a week, and twelve hours' work and overtime. They get $12 a week now and work all hours.

Blast Furnace Gives Imitation of Volcano.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 12.—With a crash like thunder one of the immense blast furnaces of the Jones & Laughlin Steel Company, on Second avenue, accidentally blew out yesterday afternoon. Accompanying the explosion a great cloud of ore, dust and cinders, some of them as large as walnuts, ascended to the clouds and then settled down over the surrounding territory. At the same time a stream of molten metal issued from the top of the furnace giving it the appearance of a miniature volcano in eruption. Red-hot cinders descended from the top of the furnace, falling on the frame buildings in the neighborhood and starting a score of small fires. Policeman John Toole secured a bicycle and, riding to the nearest box, turned in a general alarm. The fires were extinguished without much damage, but people in the vicinity were terrorized.

Hazelton, Pa., May 12.—A 6-year-old boy, a relative of the bride, officiated as groomsman at the wedding of Joseph Nicholls and Annie Levock, in St. Mary's Greek Catholic Church, on south Cedar street, here, yesterday. The wedding, which was followed by an elaborate celebration at the home of the bride, on east Sixth street, in Hazell township, was attended by other unique features. The groom was averse to any publicity regarding his nuptials, and had planned to be married without the knowledge of his friends, so he and the bride-elect rode to the church in an undertaker's carriage. The news of the wedding leaked out, however, and Nicholls entertained his friends with great gusto.

The suit was brought by Dr. Shepherd's young wife, who asks $30,000 damages. Miss Bushnell is 35 years old. Mrs. Shepherd says that Miss Bushnell was a patient of her husband and when she upbraided him for his attentions to Miss Bushnell he drove her from the house. Miss Bushnell denies the charges and Dr. Shepherd declares his wife is a victim of the drug habit. He has started divorce proceedings.

Bees Hold up Fast Train.

Williamsport, Pa., May 12.—Getting loose in a Pennsylvania Railroad express car yesterday, a swarm of bees held a fast train here twenty minutes until an apiary owner could be summoned to subdue them. A hive had been put on the train for shipment to Lock Haven by E. E Pressler, and by force of the expressman's habit, another piece of express matter was hurled against it. The bees got busy at once, the two express messengers fled and Pressler, clad in his armor, had to be called in to preserve the peace.

Woman Choked to Death.

New York, May 12.—Mrs. Lena Supier, about 50 years old, was murdered by being choked to death in her apartments in the tenement, No. 225 east Seventy-fifth street early today. James Flattery, of No. 460 east 75th street, who was employed as a night watchman of the building in which the tragedy occurred, and which is undergoing repairs, is under arrest charged with the crime. The motive for the murder has not as yet come to light. Mrs. Supier was housekeeper in the tenement for several years.

Fight on a Steamship

London, May 12.—A report is printed in some of the newspapers here today in regard to a fight which it is alleged took place among the members of the crew of the new Hamburg-American line steamer Kaiserin Auguste Victoria, which is now on her maiden voyage to New York. According to the newspaper report the fight occurred on Wednesday night before the steamer reached Dover. Owing to the seamen's strike at Hamburg, the steamer is carrying a mixed crew in which many nationalities, including German, English Dutch, Italians and some Chinese are represented. The trouble started on the well deck at the fore part of the ship, where many of the crew were gathered. Just what started the fracas is not stated, but in a few moments the entire crowd of men was fighting. Knives were used by several and others of the sailors seized iron bars, with which they belabored their comrades. The eye witness of the trouble states that as near as he could judge, the English members of the crew were the common objects of attack of the other nationalities. Two of the Englishmen, he asserts, were thrown bodily into the sea before the fight was stopped. One man was killed, it is asserted, and nine of the most seriously hurt had to be landed and taken to a hospital. The officers, by energetic work, and with the assistance of others members of the crew who were called to their assistance finally succeeded in quieting the men.

McGuire was awakened by his wife, who said she had heard some one on the fire escape. As he looked out he was fired at twice, but escaped injury by dodging back into the room. McGuire looked out a moment later and saw the man making for the street down the fire escape. He fired. The would-be burglar hastened to the ground and disappeared. Police who were called in found his body lying behind a storm door of a near-by house. At the morgue the body was identified as that of Hickey, whose picture adorns the rogues' gallery.

Dynamite Wrecks Ferris Wheel.

The Ferris wheel at the World's Fair Grounds, St. Louis, was wrecked by dynamite yesterday. The first charge of 46 sticks completely shatterred the concrete foundation and hurled large sections of it over 100 feet into the air. A similar charge brought the mammoth wheel to the ground. It did not fall with a crash, as was the general expectation, but dished together like molasses candy, and the wreckage was confined almost to the ground covered by the wheel and the framework. There are 4,200 tons of steel in the whee. and frame.

The Rate Bill.

By a party vote—23 to 54—the Senate rejected the Bailey amendment to prohibit the inferior federal courts from suspending orders of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The Rayner amendment, limiting the courts to a constitutional review, was defeated by a vote of 24 to 55.

Various amendments by Senators LaFollette, Bacon, Culberson and Tillman were voted down.

Several minor amendments offered by Speakers Allison and Lodge were adopted.

The "Allison amendment," the republican compromise, will come up for a vote today.

Senator Isidor Rayner made another notable speech, in which he eloquently set forth the distinction existing between the two kinds of court review, over which there has been such a tangle in the attempt the President has made to change them. He accused the President of interferring in railroad rate legislation.

Say Body is Not that of John Paul Jones.

According to the Cardiff Western Mail, which claims to have consulted the best archaeologists who are familiar with the circumstances, and to have made an investigation of the archives in Paris and in Wales, the remains recently brought from France to America, and so signally honored by an escort of fleets of the two nations, are not the ashes of John Paul Jones, the naval hero, but are now positively identified as the remains of William Jones, a Welch coachman. He was buried without honors in the Protestant Cemetery in Paris. Great fun is being poked at America by London periodicals, which generally charge that America has been faked.

The principal speaker will be Rev. George W. Young, D. D., assistant superintendent of the American Anti-Saloon League. Tomorrow will be known as "anti-saloon day" in Alexandria, the day having been set apart by the State League. Rev Messrs. West and Richardson, officers of the Anti Saloon League of the State, will be in the city and take part in the propaganda against saloons. Death of Wilbur Hawxhurst.

Wilbur Hawxhurst, an employe in the city postoffice, Station G, Washington, died at his residence, 224 P street northwest, yesterday afternoon of cancer. Mr. Hawhurst was at one time a teacher in the public schools of Washington He was born at Fairfax in 1865, and was a son of Job Hawxhurst, of Fairfax county. A wife and two children survive him. He married a Miss Elizabeth Brunger, of Washington. He was a member of the First Congregational Church, of Washington, and assistant superintendent of the Sabbath school.

Struck by a Falling Pole.

James Main, colored, while engaged in erecting telegraph poles near Fourmile run this morning was seriously injured by a pole falling upon him. The injured man was placed in the ambulance of the Alexandria Hospital and conveyed to that institution. Main is a native of South Carolina.

Shriners.

A meeting of the Shriners of the State will be held in Charlottesville tonight. A number of members of the order from this city will attend the meeting. Twelve candidates, including some from Alexandria, will be initiated.

Elks' Bazaar.

A visitor to Armory Hall, where the Elks' Carnival of Flowers will be held for ten days, beginning Monday, the 14th instant, would be amazed at the wonderful transformation wrought since the various committees took charge of the building. The ordinarily bare walls and ceiling are completely hidden by artistic decorations. Twenty United States garrison flags form a canopied ceiling, and smaller flags reach down from this canopy and are lost in the tangle and profusion of flowers covering the various booths. The booths are arranged with a view to allowing ample free floor space for the crowds. Each one is truly a flower booth, being completely covered with flowers in a manner which makes the whole hall appear as a great flower garden within a tent of flags, and when this picture is lighted by more than six hundred incandescent lights and enlivened by music from famous bands the scene will be suggestive of fairyland. All articles for sale and raffle are artisically arranged for exhibition. The motor boat and automobile occupy a prominent space in the centre of the hall. The booths are in charge of the following ladies: Fancy booth, Mrs. Ubler and Mrs. G L Simpson; refreshments, Mrs. Morris, Mrs. O'Sullivan and Mrs. Mushbach; supper room, Mrs Zora Hill, Mrs Fitzgerald and Mrs Baggott; Miss Pickett will have charge of the household booth; Mrs. Dr Jones the flower booth; Mrs. C. B. Marshall the tobacco stall, and Mrs L C. Barley and Mrs. Geo Unler will dispense groceries. Another fancy booth will be in charge of Mrs. Sam Bendheim and Mrs. Frank Hill. These ladies will be ably assisted in their work by a great number of Alexandria's young and beautiful girls. Many attractions other than the boothes will fill the hall and in the adjoining yard there will be plenty of fun. Here will be the "Pike" or "Midway" a great mixture of fun-making attractions where young and old will get the worth of their money to the penny. This "Carnival" should appeal to the people of our city and it will deserve the hearty support of our citizens. "Elks" is a word which throughout this country is synonomous with Charity and a crowded hall for each night should be the result. There will be fun, music, beauty and pleasure galore for each night of the Elks' Bazaar.

Masonic Visitation.

District Deputy Grand Master Robert W. Arnold made an official visit to Kemper Lodge of Masons at Falls Church last night. He was accompanied by about thirty members of Alexandria-Washington and Andrew Jackson Lodges. The delegation left here on a special train of the Washington and Ohio Railroad and returned home about midnight. There was an exemplification of the third degree in Kemper Lodge, and a fine collation was spread for the lodge and their guests at the close of the meeting.

The Corporation Commission has granted a charter to the Virginia Realty Title Corporation, of Rosslyn. Incorporators—David J. Howell, president, of Washington, D. C.; George H. Rucker, treasurer of Rosslyn, Va.; R. C. L. Moncure, secretary, of Falls Church, Va. Capital stock—maximum, $25,000. The object is to furnish chains and abstracts of titles, insure the same and deal in real estate generally.

After the Delinquents.

One of the charges urged by the Board of Police Commissioners against members of the police force during the recent investigation was their failure to enforce the sewer law. Two residents will be arraigned before the Police Court on Monday morning for failure to tap sewers running past premises they occupy. One lives on King street, between Fairfax and Royal, and the other on Prince, between Fairfax and Royal.

Change in Destination.

The officers of the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company were today notified that the steamer Pensacola with 2,500 tons of phosphate rock recently ordered here from Port Tampa, Fla., had been directed to proceed to Roosevelt, N. J, and that in her stead the four-masted schooner Calumet with 2,000 tons of rock would be sent here. The schooner is now loading at Charlotte Harbor for this port.

The Market.

There was only a moderate supply of country produce in market this morning. Prices had not materially changed from those of last Saturday. The truckers report serious damage to early fruits and vegetables by the cold weather and frosts of the present week. Strawberries, tomatoes, potatoes and cymblings have suffered considerably. In some cases at least one-half of the crops have been destroyed.

The Y. M. S. L.

The play at the Lyceum last night by the Lyceum Dramatic Club was a success in every respect. The players acquitted themselves admirably and too much praise cannot be given to each and everyone who took part. The play was under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Montier, who were untiring in their efforts to make it the success it proved to be.

POINTS TO KEEP IN MIND!

Why you should make a WILL. It is the only way you can control your estate after death—without it your control ceases. By a WILL you choose who shall manage and settle your affairs—without it the Court may appoint some one of whom you would not approve. By a WILL you determine who shall have your property—without it the law determines. By a WILL some one is ready to assume the duties—without it no one has authority to act until the Court appoints. This Corporation acts as Executor, Administrator, Guardian or Trustee. A TRUST COMPANY never dies—is always present. It cannot abscond; it is never sick, never takes a vacation. It is always prepared to do business during business hours, and you know just where to find it. Its accounts are always posted up to date, and a report can be furnished at any time on short notice. Every dollar of its Capital Stock is liable for the faithful performance of business intrusted to it. We have competent Attorneys, experienced directors and officers, skilled accountants, and our bonded obligations are the highest guarantees of efficiency and safety.

Renounces Confession.

The question of disciplining or trying on heresy charges Rev. Dr. Samuel T. Carter, who several years ago became prominent in an effort to have the Westminster Confession revised, was taken up yesterday by the Presbytery of Nassau, at Jamaica, L. I.

The meeting was called because of a letter in which Dr. Carter declares that he does not believe the Westminster Confession to be the truth of God, but "an idol of man's invention as truly as any worshiped in Delhi, Peking or Africa."

This letter is addressed to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, which meets May 18 in Des Moines, Iowa. The writer terms it "a protest and confession."

Dr. Carter has been in the Presbyterian Church for more than 30 years, but is not now in charge of a church. More than a year ago his views were discussed by the Nassau Presbytery.

The Presbytery was in session only two hours. Upon its adjournment it was stated that the Carter case had been acted upon, but all the members were pledged to secrecy. If the Presbytery has decided to proceed against him he will have to be summoned from Europe to answer the charges, and this would entail an indefinite delay.

Died in Barber Chair.

"Make me look handsome; I'm going to take a trip," laughingly remarked a well-dressed man of 35 years as he climbed into George Miller's chair in the barber shop connected with the New Amsterdam Hotel in New York yesterday. He had entered the shop half an hour previous and gone to the washroom where he remained until just before approaching Miller. When the man was half shaved he suddenly began to gasp and died. Coroner Harburger decided that there were grounds for suspicion that the man had committed suicide. In one pocket was a vial containing a milky substance and a number of empty capsules. Letters and canceled checks in the man's possession indicated that he was Hjalmer Westfeldt, an officer of the Green Bay Paper and Fiber Company, of Brokaw, Wis.

To Marry in England.

Miss Mary Irving Whitehead, daughter of the late Col. Thomas Whitehead, commissioner of agriculture, sailed from New York today for Bournemouth, England, where she will marry Edward Schneider, of Kiel, Germany, and will make her home in the latter city. Mr. Schneider formerly lived in Lynchburg, where Miss Whitehead was superintendent of St. Andrew's Hospital, and nursed him through a long illness. He is a manufacturer at Kiel. They will be married at the home of Rev. Joseph Cary, archdeacon of the Church of England in Bournemouth, whose daughter is an intimate friend of the prospective bride. Miss Whitehead recently resigned as superintendent of the Sheltering Arms Hospital, in Lynchburg, to prepare for her eventful trip abroad.

Circus Men and Students Fight.

Several State university students were shot and otherwise injured in a fight with employees of a circus at Columbia, Mo., Thursday night. A showman was shot in the jaw, and several circus employees were hurt. The students refused to vacate the tent when the performance had ended Thursday night, insisting that they would stay for the "concert," and not pay. Circus employees rushed the students with tent stakes and a fight followed. Thereupon the students left the circus grounds and greased the railroad track. A car of the circus train was derailed. Circus employees sprang from the train and another fight ensued, during which shots were fired and knives and clubs were used.

A Year of Blood.

The year 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tackets, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tacket's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me at death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and as time has proven permanently cured." Guaranteed for Sore Lungs, Coughs and Colds, at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

JEWELRY.

YES,

A good many people make the mistake of going to Washington to get something they could buy at home, do not look for it here, just jump to the conclusion that such things are not to be had in Alexandria.
